

SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER ROOM 6

Dear Families,

Welcome to, or back to Room 6!

I hope your summer was relaxing, fun-filled and memorable. Hard to believe it is time to get back into a routine and into the swing of things.

We will be practicing our grace and courtesies in class this month, with lots of yes pleases, excuse me and thank yous, as well as getting used to our daily schedule. Lots of reviewing takes place in September so that we can make sure we are all starting from the same place. You can encourage your child's independence by letting them choose their own clothes in the morning and carry their own items to their cubbies. Invite your child to share their favorite part of the day, what was exciting (or silly) or what made them proud while they were away from you. By demonstrating this skill from your own day, you encourage a deeper level of conversation and you might even hear some great stories.

Ms. Ashley will be returning to our class this year as my intern. She recently returned from a Montessori training program set in Montana this summer! Yah, Ms. Ashley! We also have ten new families joining our room, so if you see someone you don't know, stop and introduce yourself, it's always fun to find out what common bonds we share other than Montessori. Thanks for sharing your children with us. It's going to be a great year!
