

September Newsletter Room 4

Welcome room 4 families!

The first day of school can be hard for mom and dad. Part of you feels excited, the other part of you feels sad. You have been their guide for years, now you know it's time to leave them by my side, but only for a short time. They will learn and grow and share with you all they know. So as you walk away, don't worry I'll take care of those precious gifts when you leave them at my door. There is something truly magnificent about every child that works through my door. Sometimes we don't see it right away, other times it shines through like a beacon of potential. Often times I see it but the children do not. Part of my job is to draw that amazing, unique specialness out of every student-to help them see their limitless potential, capacity for growth and power they hold to achieve incredible things.

It's called GROWTH MINDSET! Our focus this year.

IMPORTANT CLASSROOM DATES AND REMINDERS

Here is what I need from you, if you have the time:

1. Someone willing to come in weekly to take children in our class to the library in our school, where they will check out a book.
2. When you have some time come in a listen to readers in the hallway.
3. Having your child in school on time ( 9:00 am ) is so important to them, and me of course.
