

MAY NEWSLETTER ROOM 4

Dear Room 4 Families:

Spring is here! I had a great time talking to each of you during our Parent-Teacher Conferences. Thank you for your continued encouragement and support. We are so very proud of all of the hard work your child has been doing each day!

This month your homework will be: to play outside for an hour. :)

With Joy,

Ms. Krystle & Ms. Allyson

KINDERGARTEN FYI!

P.E. and Music (the Montessori Bells) will be every Friday.

K Community Outreach:
sidewalk chalk art-May 11th

K Workshop: Stem Scope
Science Lab- May 19th

Artist of the Month :

- Salvador Dali- and his paintings of surrealism, modern art and cubism.

Cultural :

- Australia:
-culture, foods, living, non-living, biomes, animals, and flags, etc.
- Parts of a bee, parts of a butterfly, parts of a kangaroo.

FYI:

I have composed an email list of all of the parent's email address' to for you. Please keep an eye out for this in a separate email. I encourage you to reach out to each other for play dates, coffee dates, and just general check in's. I hope this will help strengthen our sense of community in Room 4.

Also, there is a sing up genius going out for you to sign up for zoom meetings (in order for your child to show you their most favorite work!)

IMPORTANT CLASSROOM DATES AND REMINDERS

Teacher Appreciation Week: May 3-7

Farmer's Market: May 10-14

Hat Day: May 21

Early Release Day: Friday, May 21- all children must be picked up by 3:00 P.M.

Memorial Day: May 31 School Closed