

MAY NEWSLETTER ROOM 4

Dear Room 4 Families:

Spring is here! I had a great time talking to each of you during our Parent-Teacher Conferences. Thank you for your continued encouragement and support. We are so very proud of all of the hard work your child has been doing each day!

This month your homework will be: to play outside for an hour. :)

With Joy,

Ms. Krystle & Ms.Elizabeth

KINDERGARTEN FYI!
-Kindergarten field trip will be on Wednesday, May 11. The children will depart at 9:45 and be back at 12:30.
-K's please bring a printed picture of your pet(s) for our Community Outreach Day. The K's will be making dog treats and raising money for the animals in our community.

Artist of the Month :

- Salvador Dali– and his paintings of surrealism, modern art and cubism.

Cultural :

- Australia:
-culture, foods, living, non-living, biomes, animals, and flags, etc.
- Parts of a bee, parts of a butterfly, parts of a kangaroo.

FYI:

I have composed and email list of all of the parent's email address' to for you. Please keep an eye out for this in a separate email. I encourage you to reach out to each other for play dates, coffee dates, and just general check in's. I hope this will help strengthen our sense of community in Room 4. (Some parents asked about sending this out during PTC, you may disregard if you already have this email.
