

JANUARY NEWSLETTER ROOM 1

Dear Families,

January has arrived! Happy 2023 to all of you. This month we will start our study of North America. This will include animals, biome maps, and political maps of the continent and the United States.

In science, we will be doing exercises with sink or float and begin a new animal study of fish. January also brings bring you parent to work day. This will be a fun opportunity to see your child in action in the classroom.

Cheers, Ms. Laura
