

Hello families!

We are so excited to announce the after-school activities for the summer! Please note, these are outside vendors and are not associated with Montessori Academy. If you have an issue with the class or the instructor, please reach out to Olive or Carley.

*All activities are billed the month after for services rendered. Therefore, the electives you signed up for in July will be billed on the 1st of August.

If your child is not enrolled in after-care you may still participate but will be expected to pick your child up as soon as the class is finished.

The following are the days, times, and registration information for the activities.
